IMPARTIAL, NOT NEUTRAL.

SHANGHAI, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1864.

IT is satisfactory to find that the influence of the native merchants at Ningpo has been sufficiently strong to counteract, at least partially, the insane wish of the Futai to dispense with the Anglo-Chinese garrison at that city. Returning to his capital full of vanity at the success which had attended the purely native force that he commanded at Nanking, Tsan-kwo-chuan of course thought that troops disciplined by foreigners were an unnecessary evil, under any circumstances. Native soldiers had, after a siege of indefinite duration, overcome a garrison infinitely inferior in numbers and reduced to extremity by the blockade; and native soldiers would of course be similarly able to make head against other rebel bands if, as appeared improbable, any of the latter should again venture within the borders of Chekiang. His Excellency overlooked a second use of the disciplined troops which, however, gave them their principal value in the eyes of the Ningpo merchants—namely, the protection they afforded against creek pirates and rowdies, and the consequent security in the transport of produce from the interior. It could hardly be expected that an official, amongst whose characteristics a propensity for indiscriminate appropriation of money, houses and wives, has now been shown to have predominated, should attach weight to this phase of the question. But it was the first which presented itself to the merchants, and prompted the energetic remonstrances that have proved so successful. The Ningpo merchants have a faculty for combination which their more submissive brethren at Shanghai do not appear to share; and in the present instance they have known how to exert the influence which combined action always gives, in a wise direction. A compromise has been effected, it is true; the strength of the contingent having been reduced and the uniform changed. Indeed, in order that he might retain a semblance of adhering to his previous determination, the Futai insisted on the disbandment of the entire force and the formation of a new one. But half of the old bands were of course immediately re-enlisted, and though in slightly different clothes, will no doubt do equally good service as before, under the same officers and with the same arms and discipline. The green turbans have been dispensed with, and straw hats substituted; the red stripe has been removed from the trowsers, and the circular badge characteristic of mandarin troops has been added. But the merchants will freely concede this change in habiliment, having gained their point in regard to the organisation of the force.

The most severe discipline has always been maintained in this contingent, any attempt at squeezing being punished by dismissal from the force and indefinite confinement in the Taotai's jail. But the comforts of regular wages and good quarters are so much appreciated, that several thousands presented themselves for enlistment when the pseudo-disbandment was announced. Of course the old bands were preferred, and non-commissioned officers who, in consequence of the reduction, found their occupation gone, readily re-entered the ranks as privates. The organisation of the new force has now been completed, and it has resumed charge of the city gates.

SUMMARY OF THE WEEK.

WITHIN the past week the winter season may be said really to have set in. Little change has taken place in the temperature, but the weather has been rainy, with the exception of one or two fine days. The Christy's Minstrels have left for Hongkong, after spending a season attended with great success, in Shanghai. The Australian Dramatic Company are still rewarded by public approbation. Mr. H. Birch's benefit took place last evening. There was a large audience assembled to do justice to his merits, but unfortunately the unfavorable state of the weather prevented many ladies holders from putting in an appearance. The farewell performance is announced for this evening, for the benefit of Mr. Lewis Baynton, late master of the Mercury, has been sent to Hongkong by the mail steamer, on the charge of murder and piracy. H.M. S. Rattler arrived from Chefoo on the 3rd instant, bringing with her the survivors from H. M. Racehorse. The wreck is to be sold for the benefit of the crown. The anchors and cables as well as some private stores have been saved and brought down by the Rattler. In consequence of the arrival of that vessel H.M.S. Tartar left, on Monday last, for Hongkong, en route to England. On Wednesday night a Canton man was caught in the act of effecting an entrance by means of a boat-hook through the wall surrounding some out-offices attached to the English Commissariat quarters. He has not as yet been brought before the Mixed Court, having received a cut on the head and had his leg broken in the struggle which ensued on his discovery. An Ningpo man from the City of Huei-chow who at present resides in the native city of Shanghai, excites great wonder by his extraordinary stature, which reaches to nearly eight feet. We can inform any of our readers who are desirous of seeing this prodigy that his present residence is at the Chên Wang Miao. In the Peking Gazettes of the 7th and 11th ultimo, we find reports of the seizure of Hung Fu-tien, the 'Tien Wang's son, Hung Jên-chên or the 'Jên Wang, and Hung Jên-kan or the Kan Wang. The two latter are brothers of Hung Hsiu-tsuan. They were captured by a Chifoo named Li Pao-tien; Hung Fu-tien at Shi Chên-hsien, and the others at Kuang-chang-hsien. They have been sentenced to death by the six blows. From the south we learn that Nam-kwan is at present occupied by insurgents, which, if true, will interfere with the export of tea from Fuchow next year. Chin-chew is menaced, and the report of the capture of Wan-chow is said to be confirmed. From NANKING we learn that Têng-kuo-tsuch, Futai of Chekiang, has been degraded, in consequence of representations made to the throne by a Censor. In the Peking Gazette of August 2nd, his conduct, when acting as Commander-in-chief before Nanking, was greatly applauded, and at the same time he was invested with several new dignities, as rewards for his bravery and generalship; now, however, the reputation which he then earned seems to be of no avail in even mitigating his sentence of degradation. Of the twenty charges made against him, a few of the more important are, that he seized immense numbers of women whom he retained in his dwelling, and allowed his soldiers to indulge in similar license. That he destroyed and appropriated the property of Nanking men, and sent the money which he found in Nanking to the Hunan province instead of handing it over to the Crown; and that he has reduced himself to such a state of disease as to render himself unfit to fill the high position which he formerly held.

The intelligence brought by the steamer Formosa from YOKOHAMA is of a very startling nature. On the morning of the 21st November, two of the officers of H.M. 20th Regiment, Major Baldwin and Lieutenant Bird, set out on horseback with the intention of proceeding to Kamakura and Daiboots. On the evening of the same day, however, information was received through the native authorities that one of them was dead and the other dying, they having been attacked near Kamakura. On the arrival of a company of mounted artillery, the dead bodies were found, frightfully mutilated. As yet no clue leading to the discovery of the perpetrators of the outrage, has been discovered, but it is said that, through the persuasions of Sir Rutherford Alcock, the Japanese authorities are really interesting themselves in their capture. The opinion, however, expressed by the jury of officers which sat on the inquest, seems to be more probable—that the district authorities could, if they chose, supply every detail necessary for the arrest of the criminals.

MINUTES of a General Meeting of Subscribers to the British Episcopal Church Shanghai, held at H. B. M.'s Consulate on the 22nd November, 1864.

PRESENT.—Sir Harry Parkes, K. C. B., H. B. M.'s Consul, Chairman. The Revd. C. H. Butcher, Messrs. W. G. Cuthbertson and R. C. Anthon.

Trustees.—Messrs. Cull, Lyniil, Wright, Kingsmill, Whitfield, Gamwell, Gosca, Dunlop, Rawson, Thorne, Hazeon, Kidner, E. J. Hogg and C. T. Jones.

Mr. Jones was requested to act as Secretary.

The Chairman opened the proceedings by referring to the Minutes of the last General Meeting of Subscribers held on the 14th January, 1863, and to the last Extraordinary Meeting of the 11th June, 1863, held for the purpose of considering the appointment of a Chaplain and the erection of a Church, and suggested that time might be saved by not reading these Minutes, which were in print and in the hands of Subscribers. The Report of the Trustees, which they were met to receive, explained the unavoidable delay that had occurred in rendering the accounts for 1863, and in the meantime the arrival of the new Chaplain had been welcomed by the community. It would be remembered that he—the Chairman—had, some months previously, notified the appointment by Earl Russell to this Chaplaincy of the Revd. W. J Smith, but from ill-health or other cause that gentleman had felt himself compelled to resign the charge shortly after it had been offered him, and it had since been conferred on the Revd. C. H. Butcher, who had arrived here on the 1st instant and had at once entered on his duties. The despatch from H. M. Chargé d'Affaires, announcing Mr. Butcher's appointment, would be read to the Meeting by the Secretary, and also a despatch from Earl Russell to H. M.'s Chargé d'Affaires, approving of Mr. Gilbert Scott's plans, and shewing that H. M.'s Government were prepared to pay a contribution of £2,000 to the Church to be built upon these plans, as soon as H. M.'s Minister in China should consider that the proper time had arrived for doing so.

The Secretary then read the correspondence annexed to these Minutes, marked A and B.

Mr. CUTHBERTSON then read the Report of the Trustees of Trinity Church for the year ended 31st December, 1863, marked C, and laid on the table the Treasurer's and Trustees' accounts for the same period, marked D, E, F, G. In remarking upon the Report he called the special attention of the Meeting to the necessity for the preparation of a Trust Deed and of carefully considering Mr. Gilbert Scott's new plans, which were also laid upon the table, before adopting them. It was evident that certain modifications would be required, as the accommodation they provided was inadequate.

The following Resolutions were then proposed and passed:—

Resolution No. 1.—Proposed by Mr. Thorne, seconded by Mr. Dunlop. That the Report and Accounts of the Trustees for the year ending 31st December, 1863, be passed, and that the Trustees be authorized to transfer Tls. 5,000 from building account and Tls. 1,300, or such sum as may remain after payment of arrears of interest, from Chaplaincy account to Account Current; further, that the Trustees be empowered to frame a trust deed on the basis proposed, and that a Draft thereof be laid before the next meeting for approval. (Carried unanimously.)

Resolution No. 2.—Proposed by Mr. Wright, seconded by Mr. Essex. That the thanks of the meeting be conveyed to the Rev. T. R. Mitchell, and the other clergymen who have assisted in carrying on Divine Service pending the arrival of the Rev. C. H. Butcher. (Carried unanimously.)

Resolution No. 3.—Proposed by Mr. Rawson, seconded by Mr. Lavers. That James Cull, Esq. be elected to serve as a Trustee in place of the late Thos. Moncrieff, Esq. (Carried unanimously.)

Resolution No. 4.—Proposed by Mr. Cull and seconded by Mr. Gamwell. That in the opinion of this meeting the balance now lying in the Oriental Bank, at an interest of 5 per cent, might with advantage to the interests of the Church be more profitably invested elsewhere, and this meeting accordingly suggests the transfer of this balance to such other approved Bank or Banks as will pay a better rate of interest on the same. (Carried.)

Mr. CUTHBERTSON said he wished to bring to the notice of the Meeting the difficulty of providing visitors with accommodation, in consequence of all the seats in the Church being rented, although not unfrequently left unoccupied. The Trustees would be glad of some expression of opinion that could justify them in offering vacant seats to visitors, in the event of the owners not arriving before a certain period of the service.

The CHAIRMAN supported Mr. Cuthbertson's proposal, although he did not think it desirable to put it to the Meeting in the form of a Resolution, and the conversation which ensued shewed that the suggestion met with general approval. After a reference to Mr. Butcher as to the most convenient time for the entry of strangers, the meeting appeared of opinion that no objection could be taken to these being shewn into vacant pews at the conclusion of the Psalms, and the Trustees were accordingly requested to give the necessary directions to the Verger.

Mr. E. HOGG moved that a day should be named on which they should meet again to consider the new plans, his object being to avoid the delay that an adjournment sine dié too often led to.

Mr ANTHONS observed that the Trustees would be prepared with their information and proposals in about a month's time, and suggested that a day might be named by H. M.'s Consul shortly after the departure of the last mail in December.

H. M.'s Consul said that, without actually naming a day on this occasion, which might afterwards be interfered with by other business that he could not at this moment foresee, he should be ready to meet Mr. Hogg's wishes in which he quite concurred, and would endeavour, therefore, to call a meeting at the close of December, or as soon after the departure of the last mail in that month as might be found convenient.

SIR,—With reference to Sir P. Bruce's despatch to Mr. Markham, No. 14 of the 25th of February last, I have to inform you that Earl Russell has appointed the Rev. C. H. Butcher to be Chaplain to the British Church Establishment at Shanghai, under the act 6 George IV. Cap. 87, in the room of the Rev. W. J. Smith who has resigned that appointment.

EXTRACT of Bishop of London's letter to EARL RUSSELL, of May 4th 1864.

I have the honour to recommend to your Lordship for the appointment of Chaplain to the British Consulate at Shanghai, the Rev. Charles Henry Butcher, B.A., of Bishop Hatfield's Hall Durham, who was ordained deacon, by me on December 19th, 1858, and Priest on December 18th, 1859. I have had opportunities of observing Mr. Butcher's labours in this diocese and I believe him to be thoroughly well suited for the post. Mr. Butcher was ordained to the curacy of St. Clement Danes, Strand, and has been senior curate of Hammersmith since November 21st, 1862.

SIR,—I am directed by Earl Russell to transmit to you for your information a copy of the Report which the Architect to the board of Works has made to the Chief Commissioner upon the plans and papers in regard to the proposed Church at Shanghai, which were enclosed in your letter of the 13th of June.

Lord Russell requests that the attention of the Church Committee may be directed to Mr. Pennethorne's observations relative to the entrical space allowed for each person, but His Lordship desires me to add that this particular matter is left for their decision, and that the plans being otherwise approved of, he will be prepared to authorise the issue of the Government contribution of £2,000 as soon as, in the opinion of H. M.'s Minister at Pekin, the proper time shall have arrived for paying the money.

The Plans are returned herewith.

CHURCH AT SHANGHAI.

The First Commissioner of H. M.'s Works

SIR,—Herewith I return the 38 drawings prepared by Mr. G. G. Scott for the Church at Shanghai, which were referred to me by Mr. Austin's minute of the 12th inst. and having examined the same, I beg leave to report as follows:—

The Church appears intended to provide 460 sittings (exclusive of the chancel), about two feet being allowed to each person—the dimensions within the walls are about as follows: width of Church 50 feet, length (exclusive of Apsis and Porch) 110 ft., height of nave 43 feet, of Aisles 22 feet 6 in., and the space within the Church may contain about 167,000 cub. feet, or about 363 feet for each person.

The 2 feet width of seat allowed for each person and the cubical space of about 363 feet for each person (in both cases according to my recollection) less than Messrs. Stevens and Robinson deemed necessary for the climate, and if so it would be for the Committee to consider whether or not the scale of the Church should be altogether enlarged if it be necessary to accommodate so many.

Around the western portion of the Church a covered arcade has been provided as a protection against the sun.

The drawings do not show the construction of the Church below the level of the floor, probably because it is not possible to ascertain what will be the depth of the foundation, or what description of construction may be required for them.

The Building above the floor is apparently intended to be of brick with stone dressings and stone columns, and no woodwork appears to have been introduced, except the timbers for the roofs and the seats for the people.

Not having a very clear recollection of the design prepared by Messrs. Stevens and Robinson, I cannot compare the two, but Mr. Scott's design is a much more Ecclesiastical Building and by the extreme thickness of the walls and the double timber roof above the vaulting of the Aisles, it appears calculated to suit the climate, and as the building will of necessity be very costly, it appears to me that the Government may safely make the contribution towards it of £2,000 as proposed.

I have &c.,
(Sigd.) JAS. PENNETHORNE.

REPORT of the Trustees of Trinity Church, Shanghai, for the year ending 31st December, 1863.

In presenting their Report and accounts for the year ending 31st December 1863, with continuation to 30th June 1864, the Trustees have to explain that the unusual delay in laying these documents before the Pew Renters has occurred in consequence of the lamented death of the late Thos. Moncrieff, Esq. The Church books were in his custody as Treasurer, and have not been found, notwithstanding the most diligent search amongst his papers.

Referring to the balance sheet of 31st December 1862, the amount then at the debit of the Trustees with the Treasurer was Taels 6117.60, arising, as then explained, from an outlay of:—

Cost of Temporary Church Tls. 5,450
„ of Main Guard ..... „ 3,106.49

This balance on 31st Dec. 1863 was reduced to Tls. 5694.59, but in consequence of sundry disbursements on account of the New Church, and accumulation of interest as detailed in list of incidental expenses for the six months ending 30th June 1864, it stood at that date Tls. 8,481.20.

To meet this deficit the Trustees propose to collect at once the Pew Rents for the current year..... Tls. 4,900.

In all 10,500.

H. B. M. CONSULAR COURT.

Before—Sir Harry S. Parkes, K.C.B.
H. B. M. Consul.

F. B. Johnson, Esq., } Assessors.
J. Thorne, Esq.,

W. B. Preston versus Chan Lai-sun.

The claim in this case was for Tls. 1,400 for breach of contract. The following is a copy of the plaint.

That, on the 2nd April 1863, at Shanghai, defendant, in consideration of the purchase by plaintiff of a lot of land in Hongque, and next thereafter in the occupation of J. W. Wood, promised to complete the buildings on this land, fit for habitation, within thirty days from date. That defendant further agreed that if J. W. Wood should fail to fulfil the terms of his lease, he would find other responsible tenants at the same rent; and the plaintiff says that defendant has neglected to put said buildings into a state fit for habitation, in consequence of which Mr. Wood refused to sign a former lease and vacated the premises and was exempted from the payment of the rent. That the defendant, though requested to find another tenant, refuses to do so. The plaintiff, therefore, claims Tls. 14,000 damages.

The defendant alleged in reply.

1.—That defendant did not promise the plaintiff as in plaint.
2.—That he did not neglect to make the buildings fit for occupation.
3.—That Mr. Wood did fulfil the terms agreed between plaintiff and defendant, and that if Mr. Wood quitted the premises, it was occasioned by the negligence of plaintiff himself.

Mr. Eames, in opening the case for the plaintiff, said that he supposed the question in this case was as to the sum of the damages. (The agreement made with Chan Lai-sun was here read and admitted by the counsel for the defence.) One of the buildings on this land was rented by the Municipal Council and the other by Mr. Wood. Chan Lai-sun promised to provide responsible tenants. Mr. Preston, when about to leave Shanghai wished to invest some money which he then had, and accordingly bought this property from Chan Lai-sun. Mr. Preston but for the disagreement which has arisen, would not now be at Shanghai, he having come out for the sole purpose of attending to this affair. The grounds on which Mr. Wood declined to pay rent were that the plaintiffs in the case which was then tried had not put the place into a proper state of repair. When he went into the house it was unfinished. By agreement it was to have been finished in thirty days. The terms of the agreement had been discussed in Mr. Laisun's presence and he must have understood them perfectly. Until the terms of the agreement between Mr. Wood and Mr. Laisun should be carried out, the former was not bound to take the lease. Mr. Laisun had specially agreed that the premises should be completed for occupation, and it was on the ground of this not having been done, that Mr. Wood refused to pay the rent. The house was at one time unapproachable but by a plank, on account of the water which surrounded it, and it was only through the kindness of a neighboring proprietor who afforded means of transit through his land, that the house was rendered approachable. (The judgment in the former case was read, in which it was decided that the agreement was not to be looked upon as a lease.) This judgment was in favor of the plaintiff in the present instant. He (Mr. Eames) wished to call Mr. Wood as witness in order that he might explain and amplify the manner in which the work had been done, and shew that the term in the agreement, "complete for occupation" had not been carried out. A good deal certainly depended upon what was considered the meaning of the expression fit for occupation, as what would make fit a grog-shop in Hong-que would hardly do for one of the large hongs. The learned Counsel wished to shew, 1st, what was necessary to carry out this term in the agreement; 2nd, what was done towards this end; 3rd, the expense of doing it. He wished to draw the attention of the Court to the fact that the purpose for which Mr. Preston bought the land had been defeated, for his reason in purchasing the premises was that he might be enabled to return home, and not as a land speculation. Now, however, he is obliged to be out here to look after his interests; at the same time, it is not an unproductive investment. One of the lots is at present rented by the Municipal Council, but the other is untenanted. It had also been agreed to open a road from the house, but this was not done. He wished to call as witness Mr. Cowie, a gentleman of known experience on such subjects, who, having already looked at the premises, would be able to prove to the Court the unfinished state in which he found them.

Mr. Cowie said:—I was called on, about two months ago, to examine certain premises in Hong-que formerly occupied by Mr. Wood. This report of their condition (handed in) is a correct one. (The opinion expressed in it was that 1,200 or 1,500 Taels per annum would be a fair rent for the place if put in repair. Its inferiority was at once perceptible, and the whole property presented a very uninviting appearance being in a very unfinished state.) I have never been there in wet weather. The ground is exceedingly low, and should have been raised. It is the almost invariable practice to raise ground situated so low as this. The rooms were badly arranged, and the house very unfinished in appearance. The plaster was badly put on and falling away. It did not actually lay the wall bare. I don't recollect as to the mantels. It is impossible for me to go into minute particulars as I have seen many houses since. I don't know what would be the expense of opening the road mentioned in the report.

To Mr. Robinson:—I first saw the house in the spring of 1863. I made the report about two months ago. The first time I saw it, it might have been February, March or April. Mr. Laisun then shewed me over the property. Mr. Wood put the place in my hands to let for him. It was probably in June or July he did so. He was, I think, in the house at the time.

To the Court:—I advertised the place for three months for immediate possession. I did not then consider it in good condition. At that time there was a great demand for houses. I cannot recollect the state of the house when Mr. Wood took it, but I heard Mr. Wood frequently speak of its being surrounded by water. I tried hard to find a tenant but could not do so.

W. B. Preston said:—At the time I purchased the land I was about to leave Shanghai. I left for San Francisco on the 15th or 16th of April. Mr. Laisun offered to let me have two lots, one of which was taken by the Municipal Council and the other by Mr. Wood. The rent of one was Tls. 1,500, the other Tls. 2,500, making in all 4,000 Tls. He agreed to sell it for Tls. 20,000. I also agreed for a corner piece, suitable for building, for Tls. 2,000. Mr. Laisun afterwards came to me, wishing to get out of the bargain, saying that he had found another purchaser willing to pay Tls. 25,000. I held him to his agreement. I came back to Shanghai, solely on account of this business. It was understood that the place should be completed according to the agreement between Mr. Wood and Mr. Laisun. When I came back, I found the plaister falling off the walls and ceilings. The roof was falling in so that I had to put stanchions for support, and the ground was in a complete swamp. Mr. Laisun agreed with both Mr. Wood and myself as to the road. As far as the repairing of the houses was concerned, it was entirely between Mr. Wood and Mr. Laisun, but in the case of the road, the arrangement was made with me and Mr. Wood also. (Mr. Preston here explained the position of and necessity for the road, by means of a plan showing the position of the lots) Mr. Laisun was to have made two roads.

To the Court:—The road leading to the bund was to be opened then and the other shortly after. This Mr. Laisun agreed to do before signing the agreement. I do not know how many now were in the small piece of land. I would not have bought the property were not the roads to be opened.

To Mr. Eames:—The house altogether appeared unfinished.

To Mr. Robinson:—Mr. Laisun and I discussed this agreement, and I put it into writing. I did not think it necessary to mention the roads in it. When I bought the houses they were nearly finished, and Mr. Laisun told me there was no lease in existence, but that a verbal agreement had been entered into which he considered equal to a lease. If the houses had not been leased I should not have bought them. Mr. Wood asked Laisun frequently for a written agreement, but he would not give it. If the Municipal Council were to give up the lease, I consider Laisun bound to find another tenant. The lease of the Municipal Council was between the Municipal Council and Mr. Laisun. The transfer of the land to me was made at the Consulate. Mr. Laisun was not bound to pay rent; only to find another tenant.

To the Court:—I don't exactly know what the agreement between Laisun and Wood was, but he was to complete it, as specified therein.

W. Wood:—I made an agreement with Laisun with regard to this land. I was to have rented the place from the 1st May, but did not until afterwards. When I went in, it was incomplete. The rooms were unfinished and damp, and the ceiling falling. The marble mantelpieces had not been put in. Mr. Laisun was to have built a six-foot wall round the premises, and to have made a proper carriage road leading from the bund to my house. The ground round the house was a regular swamp during the time I was in the house. In the wet weather it was most difficult to get to it, as there was no proper road leading to it. The doors and windows were not properly finished. The lease was presented to me after I entered the house. I then refused to sign it on account of these deficiencies, otherwise I should have signed it. I considered the place quite unfit for occupation.

To Mr. Robinson:—At the time I took possession, I put no protest on record as to the condition of the house. I did not begin to pay rent until the 8th of June. I instructed Mr. Cowie to let this house for me. This was in August or September. I sub-let it to Mr. Birt for a short time. I am quite clear about the agreement for the six-foot wall round the premises. I have made complaints to Mr. Laisun, saying that I washed my hands of it. Mr. Laisun informed me that the ground through which the road was to be made, belonged then to him. I was very anxious that the road should be ready. It could not have been completed for several months. There was also a promise that a second road should be made.

To the Court:—Some things requiring repair, which I pointed out before taking possession, were put to rights. I went into the house on the 8th June, while it was yet unfinished, because I was obliged to leave the one I then occupied.

The deposition formerly made by H. Leighton, acting under power-of-attorney for Mr. Preston, was put in and read. It confirmed part of the evidence of the witnesses for the plaint, but stated that after the repairs the house was habitable.

W. Birt:—In 1863 I took a house from Mr. Wood in Hongque. I occupied it for about three months. I took it monthly. The house was in a very bad condition when I went into it. The ceiling had fallen in various places and in one room the rain came in. I think these houses are bad enough, but it was worse. There were marble mantelpieces down below which were ready to be put up but were not. There was a pathway when I took the place first, but it was afterwards blocked up, so that I had to pass through the grounds of a person living next me. The whole compound was a sheet of water. On one occasion I had to go across a plank, when I fell in and was submerged nearly to my middle. There were high tides then.

To Mr. Robinson:—The bungalow next me was raised by artificial means and was quite dry. My chief objection was not having any road or wall, and also the bad state of repair of the house. I think the roof should have been taken off altogether to make it all right.

To the Court:—There was a bamboo fencing round the place. There were no bells in the house. The doors and windows were tolerable.

C. Blethen:—I remember having been employed, about three months ago, to examine an unoccupied house in Hong-que. The paper handed in is a copy of an estimate I have made of the cost of things which are required to be done to put the house in proper repair. I think the estimate is fair.

*Thomas D. Kingsmill was examined in reference to the report sent in by his firm, regard*ing the house in question, which was handed into court. It appeared from this and from a subsequent letter on the same subject, that Tls. 600 would approximately cover the repairs necessary.

This closed the case for the plaintiff.

Chan Laisun:—About two years ago I built a house and a bungalow. When I had nearly completed them, they were both applied for. Mr. Preston looked over the property and said he would take it for Tls. 20,000 and Tls. 2,000 extra for the additional piece of land. I had been offered Tls. 2,500 for the house and Tls. 1,500 for the bungalow at that date. The conditions of payment were drawn out by Mr. Preston, and also an agreement concerning the parties who were to take these houses, which I signed. The money was paid. When the time for the tenants to enter on occupation arrived, the premises for the Municipal Council were not quite ready; but they entered, and Mr. Wood's house was ready. I went to Canton and was away about two months. On my return I was told that Mr. Kingsmill had surveyed the premises and that other repairs were necessary, which I had made. I never promised Mr. Preston to raise the ground, nor did I ever engage to put up a wall. When Mr. Wood took the house, he said, there is no wall. I said, I cannot put one now, but perhaps I may when I have built over all my ground. There was no road to the bund; but I said I would make one as soon as the neighbouring property, which I intended to buy, came into my possession. In the meantime, there was a path leading past my house, by which he could approach his own. Subsequently I bought out the Chinese tenants from the neighbouring property, and re-sold the land to Mr. Hanbury and Mr. Seward. Since then there has been much dispute. When Mr. Wood and the Municipal Council guaranteed to take these premises, I know that the former was not likely to throw up the agreement, although there was no written document, and the same with the Council. If these parties had not taken the houses, I should have considered myself bound, at that time, to provide some other tenant. I had the lease to the Council prepared by Mr. Cooper; and at the same time asked Mr. Preston whether he would like to have a lease drawn out for Mr. Wood. But he said he would get that done himself. I said I would make a road as soon as I could secure land for it. I told Mr. Wood that I wanted all my money to build on my land; but I would do so afterwards. Having sold the land, I do not now consider myself obliged to make any additions to it. Mr. Preston bought the property just as he saw it. Nothing was said about filling in the land, or making other alterations.

To Mr. Eames:—When I sold the land to Mr. Hanbury, there was an understanding that he should open a road. I cannot say how many now I bought. I transferred the property as I bought it. I know nothing about what may have been taken from Mr. Preston's lot. Mr. Wood asked me to put up two mantel pieces, and I told Mr. Preston that he, having bought the houses, ought to supply them. He agreed. My promise to Mr. Wood was to build a wall at some future time, intending to do so when my land was all built on, and I was receiving interest for my money. By the provision in my agreement with Mr. Preston, I meant that if Mr. Wood did not take the house, I would provide another tenant—not that I would provide a succession of tenants, if Mr. Wood left. I have stated that I sold the premises to Mr. Preston, subject to my agreement with Mr. Wood. I should say that I am not now liable to build a wall, having sold the property.

To Mr. Robinson:—When I sold the land to Mr. Hanbury, I stipulated that there should be a road, having agreed that I would have one made. There was no stipulation in my agreement with my contractor, that he should fill up the ground. At the time the agreement was made between myself and Mr. Preston, Mr. Wood could have refused to take the house; and therefore I promised to find another tenant if he did not take it. Mr. Wood could have refused to take the house if he had pleased, when we had our conversation about the wall, and I declined to put it up at the time.

To Court:—I consider myself absolved from responsibility for Mr. Wood not having fulfilled his obligations, because Mr. Preston took the drawing-up of the lease out of my hands. The Municipal Council would be glad to throw up their lease, but cannot, because I had it drawn out legally.

Yun-sing said, he was left to finish Mr. Wood's house after Mr. Laisun went away. He was requested to put up mantel pieces, to whitewash the walls, and to make a paving. He did not see the mantel pieces put up; but was told they had been put up. Saw the rest of the work done, and the fencing put up.

To Mr. Eames:—Part of the plaster on the ceiling fell down, and I had it set to rights. Mr. Preston's houses are low; the ground is under water when it rains.

Laurence Walsh, a witness produced by the plaintiff, was here examined. I remember being present at a conversation held between Mr. Laisun and Mr. Preston regarding the land (in question). I heard the former asked whether the land was to be filled in, and he replied in the affirmative.

To Mr. Robinson:—The conversation took place between the 1st and 15th April. (Mr. Robinson here remarked that Mr. Laisun denied all recollection of the incident or of the witness's face, and suggested that the latter might be mistaken in the indentity of the individual who had made the remark). I understood that Mr. Preston had bought the land at the time.

Mr. Robinson thought the case lay in a nutshell; and that a great deal of unnecessary evidence had been brought forward. What Mr. Wood had said and done had nothing to do with it; if he had not liked the premises he had nothing to do but leave them alone. The question was merely as to the meaning of the agreement between Preston and Laisun. The latter had offered to get a proper lease of the property to Mr. Wood, drawn up; but Preston had taken the matter into his own hands, and by so doing had absolved Laisun from all responsibility. But, even as it was, he thought the lease had been binding and the plaintiff ought to have insisted on it and not allowed Wood to leave. Mr. Leighton, who to all intents was the same as Mr. Preston, had agreed with Mr. Wood that a lease was unnecessary, and this having been the case, the neglect of the plaintiff could not be visited on Laisun. The agreement even stipulated that if Wood sub-let the premises, he was to be responsible. It was evident that, so soon as the latter took the houses, Chan Laisun's connection with the property was at an end. The bargain had been for the purchase of the ground, on the simple condition that the vendor was to find a tenant for the house. Had he done so or had he not? If the Court held not, Laisun would of course have to pay; but the claim for Tls. 14,000 was absurd. How small the cause of complaint against the house was, had been shown by the evidence of the gentlemen who had been employed to make it all right. The report of Messrs. Whitefield and Kingsmill, who were chosen by the plaintiff, and which was made shortly after Mr. Wood's occupation, shewed beyond dispute that Tls. 600 would cover the cost of the additions which they considered necessary.

Mr. Eames, in the course of his reply, said the point argued, when the validity of Mr. Wood's lease had been tried before the Court on a previous occasion, was whether it was binding as a lease. If it was not a lease it was still an agreement of some kind; and might be binding in some other sense. Mr. Wood's obligation was to take the house, subject to its completion. The lease was binding, but on condition that the house was put in proper condition. If the document then called in question had been the actual lease, Mr. Wood must have kept the house. But it was only a conditional agreement for a lease. Instead of refusing to take the house, as he might have done, he entered it and gave time to the proprietors to complete it. There was a great lack of houses, and Mr Wood was compelled to leave the one he had previously occupied. It appeared that the house was not in proper condition, and Mr. Wood had got out of it. Laisun had not furnished a responsible tenant, and was liable, therefore, for all the damages that could be shown. Mr. Preston had invested for a permanent investment, and his purpose had been defeated. His money might as well be at the bottom of the sea. It was impossible to estimate damages with mathematical precision in a case like the present. Much had been said about Leighton's negligence in not presenting a lease to Wood; but the house had not been completed, and under these circumstances it would not have been right to have insisted on the latter signing one. With regard to Messrs. Whitfield & Kingsmill's estimate, that referred only to things absolutely necessary to be done; for example, it made no mention of the wall, and it was evident that the erection of one had been agreed on. It appeared to be a clear case of endeavour to avoid fulfilling the terms of an agreement—the latter perhaps not being so clear as it might have been.

The Court delivered the following judgment:—

Two points are raised in the contract in this case. Firstly, whether the defendant did complete the premises so as to render them fit for occupation, and secondly, whether he supplied the plaintiff with lessees on the terms set forth in the contract.

On the first point the Court hold that a surrounding six-foot wall, the raising of the ground to the extent of eighteen inches, and certain drains are necessary to render the said premises fit for occupation. That these do not appear to have been supplied, and are assessed by the Court on the evidence at present before it, at Tls. 1,640, which the Court accordingly hold the defendant is bound to pay to the plaintiff.

On the second point the Court hold that the defendant did provide the plaintiff with lessees in the terms of the contract, and has fulfilled his obligations in this respect.

MISCELLANEOUS.

MORE CURES OF CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, ASTHMA, AND DISEASES OF THE CHEST AND LUNGS,

BY

DR. LOCOCK'S PULMONIC WAFERS.

EXTRACT of a letter from Mr. C. Ward, stationer, &c., Market-place, Heckmondwike, Yorkshire, May 27th, 1863.—"The cures of consumption, asthma, and other diseases of the chest and lungs, are regularly occurring. One person in Liversedge, a village adjoining this town, named James Richardson, who has been an asthmatical man for nearly twenty years, declares that they are worth £1 a box (using his own words). He feels quite a new man through this truly valuable medicine." Dr. Locock's Pulmonic Wafers give instant relief to asthma, consumption, coughs, colds, and all disorders of the breast and lungs. To singers and public speakers they are invaluable; they have a pleasant taste. Price 1s. 1½d. 2s. 9d., and 11s. per box. Sold by all druggists.

ELLWOOD'S PATENT AIR-CHAMBER HATS. The Patentees having established the validity of their Patent, in an action tried on the 20th and 21st days of June instant, in the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, before Lord Chief Justice Erle and a Special Jury, in which Ellwood and another of No. 24, Great Charlotte Street, Blackfriars Road, in the Borough of Southwark, Wholesale Hat Manufacturers, were Plaintiffs: and Christy and others of No. 35, Gracechurch Street, in the City of London, also Wholesale Hat Manufacturers, were Defendants; and the Jury having by their Verdict found, that the above named Defendants had infringed the Plaintiffs' Patent, and that the Invention was new in England and in India, at the date of the Letters Patent. We, the above named Plaintiffs, do hereby give notice to all Manufacturers, Dealers in, and Sellers of Hats, Caps, or Helmets, that we shall proceed by Suit in Chancery, against all persons so manufacturing, dealing in, or selling Hats, Caps, or Helmets, constructed on the principle of "ELLWOOD'S PATENT AIR-CHAMBER HAT;" unless the previous consent of the Patentees be obtained, at the same time reserving to ourselves the right of taking proceedings against prior Infringers.

Dated this 24th day of June, 1864.

From "The Times and Daily Papers," June 21st and 22nd, 1864.

INFRINGEMENT OF PATENTS.
COURT OF COMMON PLEAS,
WESTMINSTER, JUNE 20TH AND 21ST.
ELLWOOD AND ANOTHER v. CHRISTY AND OTHERS.

Mr. Hindmarsh, Mr. Webster, and Mr. T. Ashton were counsel for the plaintiffs; and Mr. Bovill, Sir G. Honyman, and Mr. Murray for the defendants.

This was an action for the infringement of a patent for a double ventilating solar hat made for India, of which the plaintiff was the assignee.

The plaintiffs are hat manufacturers in Great Charlotte-street, Blackfriars-road, and the defendants are in the same way of business in Gracechurch-street. The invention was thus described in the specification of the patent:—"Each hat is composed of two parts, leaving a space or chamber between them, so that in hot climates the heat of the sun acting on the exterior of a hat shall not pass to the head of the wearer, but be greatly modified by the non-conducting properties of the air in the space or chamber. This space may be either closed, or it may have passages for air to enter and also to pass away."

The defendants pleaded "Not guilty," traversed that the plaintiff was assignee, and alleged that the invention was not new.

The jury, after considering the matter for an hour and a half, found that the defendants had infringed the plaintiffs' patent, and that the principle of the patent was new in 1851, both in England and in India.

Verdict for the plaintiffs.
